It is always a pleasure to be a part of the Bath Recal. Memories and faces have the sad habit of fading as the years pass by. Therefore, this book becomes more valuable each year. I know I shall refer to this book often in recalling my memories of you. I only hope that we the faculty and administration of Bath High School have helped each of you to acquire the skills, attitudes and knowledge necessary for a successful life. Good luck in all your future endeavors.

Robert J. Thompson

High School Principal

Mr. W.V. Lancaster

Young people today are subjected to so many pressures and face so many challenges that they are confused and in danger of losing their way. We, here at Bath, know through our carefully planned and organized educational process that this will not happen. Here at Bath our programs are geared to meet the needs of all individual differences via many diversified courses.

Thus I am conscious that our graduates will succeed in any field they choose. For we know that in our economy today there is no place for a person without a high school diploma. We, therefore, realize there is no easy way to succeed; but try to make the most of your life. May you achieve this meaningful goal from your experiences at this school. I truly hope that your preparations for making the most of your life be suitable to your hopes and the greatness of your enterprises.

"How'd she get past Mrs. Workman?"

"Spirited Juniors?" More like Hippie rejects from Haight-Ashbury!

The "Wildcat Roar": A Source of Enjoyment and Entertainment

The "Wildcat Roar" has contributed to the atmosphere of our high school. This year, subscriptions for the eight-page newspaper were sold in order that certain pages could be printed up-town. Kitten Mews, a regularly appearing column, was edited by senior Steph Rhine. For three years she has been in charge of this humorous little spot. Above all, Emily Spar deserves credit and thanks for keeping our school newspaper running.

A little old lady, Mrs. Partridge, was interested in the company in which she held stock, so she decided to attend one of the stockholders' meetings. She asked a few innocent questions and before long she became entangled in the business affairs of the company. The executives were in an uproar to get her off their backs, but nothing could budge her. Finally, she ended up being an asset to the company and eventually its next president.

Jerry Brennan, chosen as the Typical American Teenager, was what you may call a little too typical, for fame and fortune seemed easy to obtain and it all went to his head. Under the influence of his manager, J. Fenelon Finque, Jerry's family and friends invested in a foolish idea in hopes of becoming rich and famous. All works out well for Jerry and his family, but the lesson Jerry learned from this experience was well worth its trouble.

The A Cappella Choir is a very active group. Singing at the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Patriotism Assemblies, were some of their activities. At Christmas the choir went caroling at Memorial Hospital and also to the Malls in Lima. It also sang for the Optimist Club. The big production of the choir was the presentation of the musical, Carousel, in May. The last activity for the A Cappella Choir was singing at the Graduation exercises.

Sandy, Kathy, Dennis, and Mike are getting ready for the Thanksgiving Assembly.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS

Jo,

I can't brag ya up like all the other kids because I don't know ya that well, so I'll put ya down.

You're always sleeping at the wrong time; like in General Business. Boy and the way you treated me when I pushed your chair in for you last year was just plain lousy. You were always bugging me about something; if it wasn't this boy it was another one. The one boy you never asked about was me. After all I'm of the opposite sex and I'm available too! I hope you don't mind the way I'm writin' this. ^H^H Realy though you a swell, sweet kid. I hope I get a chance to date you some day, I love someday maybe
